The Celebration of the Holy Eucharist

Being Christian involves being shaped by the language of the Christian tradition including the Bible as the foundation of the tradition. Some of us understand Christian language literally and factually. Some of us understand Christian language symbolically and metaphorically. What we share is a common passion for the more than literal meaning of the stories and teachings that shape us.

Prelude: Elegy

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon Lord.
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness only light,
And where there's sadness ever joy.

O Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console.
To be understood as to understand.
To be loved, as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.
In giving to all men that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Words and music: Sebastian Temple (1967)

TODAY'S MUSIC

We welcome John Haysom to our service, and thank him for playing the trumpet. George Thalben-Ball was organist at the Temple Church in London for over 60 years. Elegy was dedicated to Walford Davies. Healey Willan's Prelude on 'O God, Our Help in Ages Past' features the melody in the tenor voice, heard on the rank of trumpet pipes.

SIDES PERSONS NEEDED Please sign up in narthex.
